Dear Parents,

Caythorpe Court

Our Year 4 and 5 children had a wonderful time at PGL residential last week. They experienced a range of different activities including zip wire, high ropes, orienteering and vertical challenge. As always the leaders commented on the outstanding behaviour demonstrated – well done! Thank you to our staff who looked after the children and kept us up to date with their activities via Twitter!

Adoration

Bishop Patrick has requested for schools to get involved in the National Eucharistic Congress (Adoremus). As part of this, Father Colin led an Adoration session on Tuesday, for children in Key Stage 2, where they spent some time in quiet prayer with the Blessed Sacrament. Father Colin commented on the reverence and respect the children brought. On November 24th schools across the Diocese will take part in a day of adoration.

Year 5 / 6 Football

Well done to our fantastic football team who played against Ashby Hilltop on Wednesday. It was a great competitive game ending 7 – 5 to St Charles; what a great achievement!

Forest Day

Children in Classes 1 and 2 had another amazing Forest Schools session on Thursday which involved moving logs for frogs, bonfires and toasting marshmallows. It is great for our children to have this outdoor experience!

Autumn Disco

Our children had a super time on Thursday evening at our Autumn Disco arranged by the Friends of St Charles; Lots of fun was had! Thank you so much to FOSC for organising this event for our children and all of their help on the night.
