Dear Parents,

World Down Syndrome Day

Thank you to everyone who wore brightly coloured, odd and many socks on Thursday to raise awareness of Downs Syndrome in our community.

"Today we think of people with Down Syndrome. May they be welcomed and appreciated, right from their mother's womb" Pope Francis

First Reconciliation

Congratulations to the children who celebrated the sacrament of First Reconciliation on Saturday. We continue to pray for them as they prepare for their First Holy Communion in May.

Lenten fundraising

Thank you to everyone who participated in 'Be a goodie, wear a hoodie' day' – we raised £94.00 for CAFOD. A reminder that our next event will be on Friday 12th April, where children in each class will be learning and performing a dance from a country CAFOD supports. Parents are welcome to come and watch our performance at 2.00pm, there will be charge for entry and refreshments on sale and all proceeds will go to CAFOD.

Whole School Mass

Our Lenten, whole school mass will takes place this Sunday; 24th March. We hope as many families as possible will attend. Children to be in school uniform.

Year 3 / 4 Hockey

Well done to the 12 children who played in the NWLSPP Hockey Tournament on Wednesday. For many children, this was their first tournament experience, and to be able to enter 2 teams from such a small school is fantastic! Year 5 / 6 will be playing in their tournament next Wednesday.
